

Meet CPA's Newest Trustee

Sandra Ziebro-Hughes

That's Sandra with our Club Sergeant at Arms
Ken Plechowski

1. How did you learn about the CPA and when did you join?

I've known about the CPA for many years. When I lived in PA I came in often for the USPA convention and to visit my mother, always aware of the CPA.

2. What sparked your interest in polkas?

I've been around Polish polkas since birth. My entire growing up, they were in my world. My dad was a huge influence on me, instilling pride in being Polish-American.

3. So, I hear you play the accordion. Any plans on starting an all-female polka band? I could find you a vocalist!

No, I have no intention of starting a band, but I have heard of that girl singer! She's very good! 🎵

4. I understand you are recently retired – what occupies your days now?

My days are filled with renovating my home, being available for my granddaughter Sarah, visiting with my children and grandchildren and being grateful every day for my blessed life.

5. What are some of your expectations as a new CPA Trustee?

My expectations as a Trustee are to help facilitate the needs of the CPA, the board and the members, expand on the current exposure the Club reaches now and enjoy the fun that is every event the Cleveland Polka Association sponsors.

Thank you for this opportunity.
